UPDATE:

First, I want to thank all my loyal bidders. I have come to know many of you over the phone, and some of you I have met personally. The people you meet in our hobby is one of the rewards.

A couple of comments about this sale: First a number of the tokens and medals in this sale belonged to Al Dorego Jr. Who passed away suddenly January 17th. Al was a friend and a collector for some time.

Secondly, you will see that a number of the items have the letters MN* after them. These items came from a collection where inventory numbers were painted on the tokens and medals, and then there was a lacquer overcoat applied. The lacquer and the painted numbers are removable with a product like acetone. However, I did not remove the numbers because I thought some of you may want it because of historical purposes.

As you can image, my cost of the mail bid sales continues to rise. However, I know that a lot of you appreciate and look forward to receiving them. I will continue to publish the mail bids. However, I plan to go to 4 sales a year, rather than the current 6. That means the next sale after this one will be a June sale. I will continue the same format, and try to offer a variety of interesting material. Thank you for your continued patronage. I invite your comments.
